Vs.

....

Mr. N.M. Ganguli for the Petitioner.

Mr.M. S. Karnik for Respondent Nos.2 and 3.

CORAM : DALVEER BHANDARI, C.J. &
DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD, J.

October 14, 2004.

P.C.:

The petitioner has challenged apprehended decision of respondent No.1 to transfer the workmen, who are members of the petitioner-Union, to different places. Admittedly they are working at Mumbai, and, according to terms and conditions of service, the members of the petitioner-union can be transferred from one place to another. Transfer is part of administrative exigency. We see no merit in the petition. The petition is accordingly dismissed.
